products. This meeting brought together participants from leading organizations in Sri Lanka, who are currently engaged with their business operations in Bangladesh and looking forward to exploring expansion opportunities. This event served as a platform for the business community to express and discuss their challenges in carrying out the export/import trade activities with Mr. Weerakkody and get his attention towards fostering closer economic ties and eliminating barriers for collaboration between the two nations. Valuable information regarding tariffs and non-tariff barriers, visa requirements related issues, investment and opportunities for export/import were discussed.

Mr. Weerakkody stressed that there is a great necessity to get into MoU with Bangladesh to promote Sri Lankan export trade. He stressed that he would be earnestly looking into the challenges expressed by the local business community with the deeper understanding gathered during this discussion. The business community representatives were appreciative of the fact that this discussion was organized by the National Chamber to express their business-related bottlenecks directly with the designated High Commissioner to Bangladesh and request viable solutions.

National Chamber hosted Sri Lankan High Commissioner designate to India.

The National Chamber of Commerce of Sri Lanka in collaboration with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs hosted Ms. Kshenuka Seneviratne (Former Secretary to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs), Sri Lankan High Commissioner designate to India recently, at the National Chamber of Commerce of Sri Lanka. Objective of this meeting was to explore and discuss enhancement of bilateral trade and investment opportunities between Sri Lanka and India.

National Chamber President, Mr. Deepal Nelson with his opening remarks, welcomed the High Commissioner and emphasized the importance of her presence at the National Chamber to meet the leaders of business community. This session was attended by the office bearers of the National Chamber and several leaders from the business community.

Ms. Seneviratne provided a comprehensive overview of the swiftly changing business landscape in India and emphasized about the immense potential for Sri Lankan business community to engage in exports to the Indian markets. Further, explained that India being our closest and biggest market, there is ample opportunity for Sri Lankan business entities not only to engage in exports but also to promote tourism targeted at the Indians. This event served as a platform for the business community to express and discuss their challenges in carrying out the export/import activities with Ms. Seneviratne and get her attention towards fostering closer economic ties and minimize barriers for collaboration between the two nations.

An initiative towards digitization of MSMEs in Sri Lanka

A capacity building workshop on Strengthening Business Digitization and Product Promotion initiatives among Micro, Small and Medium sized enterprises (MSME's) for accelerating progress towards United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDG's) in Sri Lanka, was conducted from 24th to 27th of October 2023, at the Mandarin Hotel, Colombo 03.

The workshop was organized by the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (DSDG/DESA) in collaboration with the Ministry of Industries, Sri Lanka and the National Chamber of Commerce of Sri Lanka (NCCSL) partnered as the technical training provider.

The workshop was closely aligned with the 1,000-youth entrepreneur programme, a pilot project launched by the Ministry of Industries in Gampaha District. A total of 50 participants which included 35 entrepreneurs from the 1000 youth entrepreneur programme and 15 government officers providing support services to the project participated in the workshop.

During the four-day deliberations the participants received comprehensive practical oriented training on adopting and developing digital and e-commerce platforms to market and promote the production of the MSME's to local and export markets.

The program was conducted by a professional team of experts facilitated by the NCCSL, led by Dr. Lochandaka Ranatunga and Mr. Pranama Munasinghe which covered the theory and practice on introduction to E-commerce and Digital Marketing Strategies, Effective online marketing strategies, Building and managing e-commerce business, Advanced strategies and integration. The participants were privileged to design and develop their own webpages and social media communication platforms during the workshop with the assistance of the trainers who facilitated the program in trilingual capability.

The inauguration ceremony of the workshop was held on 24th October'2023. which was graced by Ms. Thilaka Jayasundera, Secretary to the Ministry of Industries as the chief guest. Ms. Simran Singh, Country Director ILO, Mr. Ke Liu Clark, United Nations, Department of Economic & Social Affairs (UNDESA/ UNDSGD), Mr. Deepal Nelson, President, National Chamber of Commerce, Mr. J W S Kithsiri, Additional District Secretary, District Secretariat, Gampaha participated as special guests. Senior officials of the Ministry of Industries, Mr. Erandika Dissanayake and Mr. Asitha Senevirathne of ILO Sri Lanka Country Office was also present at the occasion as special invitees.

The program was concluded with an evaluation session in which they provided their feedback on the value of receiving such a timely and important learning experience to adopt digitization and marketing promotions through e-commerce. An international evaluator appointed by the UNDSEA was also present as an observer throughout the four- day session.

The certificate award ceremony was held on the final day of the workshop attended by Ms. Thilaka Jayasundera, Secretary Ministry of Industries, Mr. Clark, United Nations, Department of Economic & Social Affairs (UNDESA/UNDSGD), Mr. Chamika Godamanna, National Chamber of Commerce of Sri Lanka. Mr. K.M Rizvi, Director, Ministry of Industries and Mr. Padmasiri Gunewardene, Senior consultant who played a key role in initiating and organizing this workshop also were present at both occasions.
